

This cartoon was in the Chicago Tribune in 1934. Look carefully at the plan of action in the lower left corner.

Remember the old adage: "Those who forget history are doomed to repeat it."

"If you put the federal government in charge of the Sahara Desert, in five years there'd be a shortage of sand." Milton Friedman